

The RMC Wall of Honour

Update and How You Can Nominate a Candidate

The RMC Wall of Honour

In 2009 the Class of 1963 donated the Wall of Honour (the Wall) to RMC upon entry to the Old Brigade.

The Wall:

- Recognizes ex-cadets of the Canadian Military Colleges (RMC, RRMC, CMR) and others with College numbers for outstanding achievements and contributions to Canada or the world
- Inspires prospective recruits, existing RMC students, RMC graduates, RMC staff and all Canadians to be the best they can be through dedication, hard work, application of their talents and training and by letting “Truth, Duty, Valour” guide their lives.

Among Those Who Have Been Honoured

- 13 Major-General A.B. Perry, CMG, ADC – “Pioneer leader of the North West Mounted Police and Royal Canadian Mounted Police”
- 85 William J. Stewart – “Scholar, Chief Hydrographic Surveyor of Canada”
- 1032 Lieutenant-General Eedson Louis Millard "Tommy" Burns, CC, DSO, OBE, MC, CD – “Decorated WW I Soldier, WW II Canadian Corps Commander, UN peacekeeper”
- 7860 Lieutenant-General, the Honourable Roméo Antonius Dallaire, OC, CMM, GOQ, MSC, CD – “Soldier, Humanitarian, Author, Senator, Activist”
- 13738 Colonel Chris Austin Hadfield, OC, OOnt, MSC, CD – “Aviator and Astronaut Extraordinaire”

Looking Ahead

Transition

- A detailed transition process involving the Class of 1963 and the Class of 1975 has taken place over the past three years
- Management and administration of the Wall of Honour was transferred to the RMC Class of 1975 at the 2018 ceremony

The Challenge Going Forward

- In recent years the quantity of submissions has declined
- RMC has committed to nominating a candidate each year
- But your help is needed to ensure that the important goals of the Wall of Honour continue to be achieved

How You Can Help

- Talk about the Wall of Honour with your friends and colleagues
- Study Canadian history to identify ex-cadets or others who meet eligibility criteria
- Select a potential Honouree
- Review the Selection Criteria and Outline for Nominee Submissions
- Prepare and submit a nomination
- Contact a member of the Wall of Honour Governance Committee for assistance
